Keel Launches Enhanced Website to Showcase Commitment to Building America's Defense

[Ladson, South Carolina] – [October 28, 2024] – Keel Holdings, LLC ("Keel"), a leader in high-end defense manufacturing across naval, land and space applications, is proud to announce the launch of its enhanced website, KEELUSA.com.

The site serves as a comprehensive resource, reflecting Keel's ongoing commitment to innovation and excellence while providing defense industry experts and stakeholders with up-to-date information on Keel's extensive capabilities, market expertise, and rewarding career-building opportunities.

"This website marks a significant step forward in our commitment to providing the best solutions for the defense industry," said Brian Carter, CEO of Keel.

The updated site reflects Keel's innovative spirit and dedication to quality, featuring detailed descriptions of our specialized manufacturing processes, insights into tackling complex engineering challenges and much more.

Steve Ross, Director of Strategic Programs, added, "We are excited to offer a more user-friendly, informative, and engaging experience that reflects the innovation and quality that Keel is known for."

At the heart of Keel's mission is the Keel "Kredo", which emphasizes the company's identity as builders who excel in creating innovative manufacturing solutions for land, sea, and space. This philosophy is embodied in every project, from supporting the U.S. Navy's critical nuclear submarine and aircraft carrier programs to crafting complex components for next-generation aerospace missions.

About Keel

Built for precision with an eye for innovation, Keel was formed through the merger of Pegasus Steel, Merrill Technologies Group, and Metal Trades. We are focused on delivering unmatched quality in fabrication, machining and integration to the U.S. Navy, the broader Defense Industrial Base supply chain, and our industrial customers.
